Asia Wine Trophy

Complied with the strict rules of OIV, Asia Wine Trophy shows its reliability not only to participants but to consumers. Asia Wine Trophy also has the jury members from more than 20 countries and many of them are the foremost experts in their field, who evaluate the registered wine upon their recognized professional proficiency as tasters or oenologists.

The award-winning wine will be promoted through various channels such as tasting events, Korean media report, wine shops and Asia & Europe wine professional media as well as related websites (www.asiawinetrophy.com, www.djwinefair.com) and social media. Having the trophy logo on the bottle, the award-winning wines will have opportunities to promote their brand awareness while providing reliability to the consumer.

Asia's First and Only Wine Competition patronized by OIV

OIV grants the certified mark as an accreditation for the patronage after evaluation with its own strict rules such as limiting the number of the award-winning wine under 30% of the total, keeping the percentage of the juror who resides outside of the competition hosting country more than 50%.
